Nothing beats this view.

HEAVENLY TERRACE 99

From Heavenly Terrace 99 you can observe all “tre terre” – three countries and unforgettable sunsets. While observing them you will feel like you are on the top of the world.

The terrace is open from June to September and proudly also hosts private parties, weddings and other unique and custom-made events.

Exactly 99 steps lead to everyone’s favorite terrace on top of Hotel Piran.

OUR LITTLE WINE STORY

Was created out of a love for creating new experiences, intertwining local scents and tastes, which uplift the visit to the Hotel Piran.

At the local gift shop, guests can choose from homemade products of olive oils, spicy salts, truffles in countless forms, delicate chocolates, and delicacies that remind travelers of Piran long after arriving home. In the wine shop, the shelves sway under the bottles, which capture the aromas of wines, created by the favorable location, the sun, the Istrian wind and the passion and knowledge of winemakers.

RESTAURANT HOTEL PIRAN

Enjoy the view to the sea from the restaurant or from the terrace by the sea, protected with a glass wall for understurbed horizon.

TREVISINI PALACE

The mighty neoclassical Trevisini Palace is located next to the port, 100 meters from the hotel.

The hotel supports the events with catering services.

TARTINI THEATRE

Run by the Portorož Auditorium and located in the coastal town of Piran, the Tartini Theatre is a multi-purpose venue for various cultural events, including concerts, exhibitions, film screenings, musicals, dance performances and – naturally – theatre plays.

Occasionally hosting festivals like the Festival of European and Mediterranean Film and the Piran Musical Evenings, it is also used for conferences, symposia, seminars, presentations and receptions. The theatre has a capacity of 300 seats within an area of 350 m².
